8th January 2015 Edinburgh, UK

Locally owned Talent Management and Recruitment business Edgar Stewart Selection (ESS) has today announced the addition of two new Directors. Craig Jackson joins ESS from recruitment business Eden Scott with Alan Wallace stepping up from his current Associate Director position.

Founding Director Bruce Hydes commented, "I am delighted to welcome both Alan and Craig to Edgar Stewart Selection as full equity partners and board members.

Having worked with both Alan and Craig in the past I recognised that we shared a common bond in our business ethics. We also shared a desire to build a dynamic talent management and recruitment business pitched at meeting the needs of the new breed of emerging technology companies.

With the addition of Alan and Craig I feel I now have the perfect team to achieve this goal."

Incoming Director Craig Jackson added; "The world of talent acquisition has changed dramatically in recent years, but in general the traditional recruitment market has not kept pace. This is especially true when it comes to supporting the vibrant Start-Up and SME technology community."

Alan Wallace expanded further by saying; "Edgar Stewart has already invested in leading edge search and enabling technologies, giving us real time access to the global marketplace across 270 social networks and platforms. This is complimented by our innovative range of products and wider professional ecosystem that provides our clients with a distinct competitive advantage aiding their growth plans."
